

SHASTA COUNTY
INDEPENDENT LIVING PROGRAM

PROGRAM BULLETIN
August 2008

Foster Youth Garden: The garden is starting to produce well. We had tremendous set backs this year due to the deer and frost. We continue to have the Tuesday Cooking Classes. Some of the dishes the youth have cooked up this summer include BBQ'd Chicken, fresh salads, Fajitas, vegetable shish kabobs, and potato salad. We are waiting for the pumpkins to ripen in October so that Jen can teach the youth how to make her famous pumpkin pies from scratch again. Last year the youth were fighting off the crowds that wanted to devour them.

The garden will be opened on Tuesdays and Thursdays for the first couple of weeks of August. Once the youth return to school the garden will return to afternoons on Tuesdays from 3:30-5:30. Please check the schedule below.

August 2008 Garden Schedule: the person listed on the schedule is responsible for running the garden that day; however, other ILP caseworkers may be there with clients.

Back To School: ILP Caseworkers are busy helping the college students get ready to go back to school. Shasta County ILP is working closely with the dorms and foster youth liaison to try and make the transition smooth. ILP Caseworkers have spent the last few weeks making sure that youth have housing, are signed up for classes, and all of the final paperwork is in. Move in day for the dorms is August 14th @ Shasta College. We have a record 13 foster youth moving into the dorms this year. If you have any questions talk to your ILP Caseworker.

Experiential Groups: Experiential Groups will begin again in September. We are currently working on the schedule and will have some new and exciting classes for this year.
